TO MAKE UP DEFICIT OF ROSEVILLE TRUST.

Directors Trying to Raise Fund of $200,000 to Cover Denositors' Loss.

$70,000 ALREADY PLEDGED

Missing Treasurer Now Thought to Have Gone to Buffalo Wednesday Morning.

NEWARK. Aug. 21 .- Officials of the Roseville Trust Company, which was closed a week ago to-day following the disappearance of Raymond E. Smith, the treasurer and secretary, who is blamed for the shortage of $358,000, are planning to raise a fund of at least $200,000 to pay the depositors in full. This was discussed by the directors and officials after their conference with Special Dep-uty Commissioner L. R. Vredenburgh of the State Banking and Insurance Depart-

It was decided to call a meeting of the directors for to-morrow afternoon, when a statement will be made to the full board. Charles C. Lurich, a director, was appointed secretary, and has notified the other directors to attend.

President William Odell has consented to give $25,000, Edward B. Dunn $25,000, and Vice-President William Fairlie $20,- and Vice-President William Fairlie $20,000. The other directors will be asked to subscribe at the meeting to-morrow.

It is now believed that Smith left for Buffalo last Wednesday morning. A man of Smith's description bothght a ticket for that place at the Parkview station of the Lehigh Valley Railroad and boarded the Chicago express at 10:38. He wore a dark gray suit, such as Smith is thought dark gray suit, such as to have worn.

Fred E. Day, proprietor of the Parkview Hotel, said that a man whom he believes was Smith came there in an automobile last Wednesday morning and automobile last Wednesday morning and about an hour telephoning. Most spent about an hour telephoning. Most of the calls were out of town and the charges amounted to $2.25. He was met by a man of stout build who came in another auto. They did not stay long and drove off in their cars.

Joseph McAndrews; a travelling sales-an of 17 Warren place, believes that he saw Smith on the express.

George Furst, counsel for Wilfred C.
Roszel, reteiver in bankruptcy, found a telegram in Smith's apartments last night ddressed to a man named Cuibert at the santa Clara Valley Bank, Santa Clara, Cal. It contained a request for money and advised Cuibert to hold on to his job od not try to get employment here.

Commissioner Vredenburgh, President

Odell and the executive committee were at the bank to-day inspecting the notes found there to ascertain the probable loss on them. It is said that a number of the notes have never been seen before by the directors. The loss will fall upon the depositors unless the directors make up the deficiency and will be in addition to the $169,000 announced by Mr. Vredenburgh yesterday.

An explanation was given to-day why the directors did not remove Smith when a recommendation was made to that effect and after he had offered his resignation. recommendation was construed to mean that the examiner wanted the posi-tion, wherefore the directors regarded it with suspicion and paid little attention
